

12th Asia-Pacific Eco-Business Forum in Kawasaki

Towards Establishing an Industry-Academic-Government Cooperation to Promote the Kawasaki Model as an Environmentally Sustainable City in Southeast Asia

— Bring about Innovation in Asia by Utilizing Experiences and Knowledges of Kawasaki as a City-Industry Symbiosis City—

Pollution problem

1966

2010

Mt. Fuji

Source: Kawasaki City

Pollution mitigation through Industry-Academic-Government Cooperation

Hollowing out of industry

Further innovation

- Kawasaki Eco-Town (Structural change of industries)
- Promotion of business-academia collaboration
- Support for overseas expansion

Presentations

“Eco-Industrial Network Challenges from Kawasaki Eco-town “

Prof. TsuyoshiFujita

“ The role Industry-Academic-Government Cooperation to develop eco-cities in Indonesia”

Prof. Ucok W. R. Siagian,

Prof. Retno Gumilang Dewi,

“Global enterprise roles as a driving force to promote Eco-cities in Asia”

Mr. Toshiaki Ariyama,

“Green innovation from Kawasaki city”

Mr. Takamasa Hayashi,

Opportunities and Constrains in Bridging the Boundaries between Government, Academia and Industry in the Implementation of Low Carbon Technologies”

Mr. Remi Chandran

